MATTERS INVOLVING LITIGATION, PERSONNEL & SPECIAL MATTERS

The subject matter is covered by one or more of the following legal exemptions:

- Matters made confidential by state, federal law or rule by court.
  - Disclosure would result in an unwarranted invasion of individual privacy, unless the person affected consents in writing.
  - Disclosure would impair the body's right to receive federal or state funds.
  - Collective bargaining.
  - Lease or acquisition of property, setting of banking rates, investment of public funds if disclosure would harm the public interest.
  - Investigations into violations of law.
  - Strategies to protect public security.
  - Pending, ongoing or anticipated litigation or contract negotiation, including attorney-client privilege. The threat of litigation must be more than theoretical for this exemption to apply.
  - Personnel matters affecting employees of the public bodies, unless all parties request or consent to a public hearing. Prior to discussion of personnel, affected employees must be given notice, known as a Rice notice, which gives the employee the right to request a public hearing.
  - Proceedings that could result in a suspension, civil penalty, or loss of a license or permit.
